STATE GIVES PRELIMINARY OK ON SCHOOL

The Gettysburg Joint School District's plans for a new elementary school building on land bought from the county home property along the Harrisburg Rd. moved forward again Tuesday when a committee in the state Department of Public Instruction gave approval for the preparation of preliminary plans and drawings by an architect.

Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle was informed of the committee action in a telephone conversation with Harrisburg this morning and in turn advised the Buchart Engineering Corporation in York by telephone of the state action.

When Harrisburg sends written confirmation of Tuesday's action, formal notice will be given the school architects to go ahead on preliminary plans. When final plans are drawn, they also must get state approval.

Aiming At September, 1958
Every effort is being made by Superintendent Riegle and the school directors to get the building underway in time to have it ready for use by September, 1958.

The present elementary school buildings will fall short by four rooms of providing enough space for pupils in the first six grades in September of this year and all figures gathered in school surveys show that there will be another increase for the fall of 1958. The school district has rented four classrooms in the former High Street School building to handle the overflow in the school year which will open in September.

Preliminary estimates have placed the cost of the new 20-room grade school building at about $800,000. In addition to providing classrooms for regular instruction, the local school authorities have had to make provision for rooms for special classes with the prospect of the number of classes being increased above the minimum to be established this fall.

SOROPTIMISTS TO HOLD JOINT INSTALLATION

Plans were completed Tuesday evening at the regular business meeting of the Soroptimist Club at the YWCA for the joint installation dinner to be held Tuesday, June 25, at Hotel Gettysburg.

Mrs. Glenn Guise is to serve as chairman of the hostess-greeter committee and is to be assisted by Mrs. Samuel Hignbotham, Mrs. Violet Hill, Mrs. S. A. Burton, Mrs. Irving Bierer and Mrs. Harry Scott.

The following members will serve as hostesses at the dinner tables: Mrs. Milo Gallinger, Mrs. Robert Smith, Miss Virginia Myers, Mrs. Eleanor Jacobs, Miss Julia Peters, Mrs. Esther V. Hartman, Mrs. Nora Smick and Mrs. Walter A. Keeney.

Fast Governor To Speak
Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, chairman of the program committee, who will be installed as the new president, has secured Peg Wilson, Atlantic City, a past governor of the North Atlantic Region, to serve as the installing officer and to address the group.

Mrs. George W. Boehner, retiring president, conducted the business meeting attended by 23 members. Reports were given by chairmen of several committees and President Boehner asked members to pay annual dues in advance this year. The club voted to dispense with business meetings during July and August.

Eisenhowers "May" Attend Service Here

President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, "pending unforeseen circumstances," may attend the 94th Battle Anniversary memorial service at the Gettysburg High School auditorium June 30, according to word received by the committee in charge.

President Eisenhower's letter said in part: "As of now we are expecting to be in Gettysburg on that date and will have at least one couple as our house guests. There are some complications, however, because we are planning a celebration of our own on that date in honor of the wedding anniversary of our guests."

"In spite of the complications that may be presented by this obligation or our own, I feel sure that, pending unforeseen circumstances, we can come to the concert. Certainly we would hope to attend and with your permission will delay giving you a definite answer until later in the month."

General Maxwell D. Taylor, U. S. Army chief of staff, will be the speaker at the annual program, which will include a concert by the U. S. Army band.

SHAREHOLDERS OK INCREASE IN CAPITAL STOCKS

Shareholders of the Gettysburg National Bank at a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at the bank gave unanimous approval of a plan to increase the capital stock of the bank from $250,000 to $625,000. C. A. Willis, president of the bank, announced today.

There were no dissenting votes among the 40,023 shares voted out of the bank's current total of 50,000 shares.

The plan for increasing the bank's capitalization had been explained in advance to the stockholders in a letter last month from President Willis.

There will be a 50 per cent stock dividend to present shareholders and then 50,000 new shares of stock will be offered first to the bank's stockholders at $10 per share. From the proceeds of that stock sale, $250,000 will be added to capital and a like amount to surplus.

Needs D. C. Approval
The proposed increase in capitalization now is being submitted to the comptroller of the currency in Washington, D. C., for final approval.

The action was described as "necessary to better meet the needs of the bank's customers and thus assure its continued growth and prosperity" by President Willis when the plan was first announced in May.

The present project marks the first increase in the capital stock of the bank in two decades.

Approval of the plan required only a two-thirds vote of the stockholders.

Philip R. Bikle presided at Tuesday's meeting and proxies were voted by Roy W. Wentz, Mrs. Ellen T. Buehler was secretary of the meeting and Dr. Chester N. Gitt, Charles H. Huber Jr. and Donald H. Hershey were the judges.

BURY MRS. MUSSELMAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Hoke Musselman, 85-year-old widow of Dr. J. Ellis Musselman, who died at her home, 225 Springs Ave., on Saturday morning, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. Herman G. Stuempele Jr., Christ Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery. The pallbearers were Roy Stanley and Earl Musselman, Clarence Fraley, Francis Hoke and Eugene Rowe.

EVERGREEN LOTHOLDERS HOLD ELECTION

Officers of the Evergreen Cemetery Association were elected for another year at the annual meeting of the lotholders late Tuesday afternoon at the office of Attorney Eugene R. Hartman and then the board of managers made its annual inspection of the cemetery.

Dr. Chester N. Gitt was re-elected president of the association and this board of seven managers was named for another year: Radford H. Lippy, J. Milton Bender, Edward N. Stine, Mr. Hartman, Paul L. Spangler, Charles B. Bender and George T. Raffensperger.

The managers then named Mr. Lippy as vice president, Mr. Raffensperger as secretary, the Gettysburg National Bank as treasurer and Howard C. Kitzmiller as superintendent.

Will Welcome Gifts
The annual inspection tour found the cemetery "in good shape," the managers reported. They rode over roadways in the old cemetery where re-surfacing work had been completed about two hours earlier.

The road improvement work was done at a cost of about $2,500 and officers said the association will welcome gifts from organizations and individuals to help pay for that work. They said that unless gifts are forthcoming, money will have to be borrowed to pay for the road work. "It will take a long time to pay off that bill on the tight budget under which the cemetery association has to operate," one officer said today.

The officials also inspected the recent plantings of 1,000 hemlock and a green spruce in the western end of the old section of the burying ground. Old trees were removed there earlier this year because of danger to gravestones and fences in the Evergreen and National Cemeteries. Funds from the sale of that lumber helped pay for bulldozing the area to remove rocks and prepare the land for planting the young evergreens.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, jovial and looking chipper after his illness, was breakfasted today to 40 House Republicans in a new move to get his bogged-down legislative program through Congress.

The White House meeting marked the President's resumption of regular business engagements in the wake of the stomach upset which kept him in bed all day Monday and sharply restricted his office activities yesterday. Eisenhower's physicians have reported him "almost" recovered from the stomach distress. They attribute his brief illness to "slight overindulgence in some types of food."

LUTHERANS GIVE SOME ADVICE TO PA. LAWMAKERS

The Central Pennsylvania Synod, meeting at Christ Chapel on the Gettysburg College campus Tuesday night, voted to inform the state legislature that synod is "deeply concerned" with the "need for restoration of essential items in appropriation bills." "challenged" the legislators to "exercise responsibility above partisan politics in confronting basic human needs" in current state programs, and urged "that progress made especially in the field of mental welfare, penal affairs, public assistance and civil service should be sustained."

The action of the synod's 590 delegates from 625 churches was described by synod press officials as "without precedent."

The group "as a representative group of citizens of the commonwealth" declared that the legislature should adopt "forthright budgets," and that costs for new services "should not be concealed and confused by buying costs of mandated services of departments of state government in a mounting deficit."

"Robbery By Consent"
The synod members branded Senate Bill 366 which would legalize horse racing and wagering "an attempt to repeal the will of God." The resolution opposing the bill held that "gambling is stealing insofar as it is robbery by consent."

Endorsed was Senate Bill 17 which the synod members held "seeks to preserve and prolong human life by making more effective prosecution possible and by increasing the penalty for operating motor vehicles under the influence of alcohol."

A number of bills pertaining to public assistance matters were endorsed, as were the Pennsylvania Fair Housing Act, S-301 and the Pennsylvania Fair Educational Opportunity Act H-153, which the synod held were "in harmony with Christian social policy recognizing the oneness of humanity in Christ."

Rev. Tilberg Reports
The action on social legislation came following reports presented Tuesday night. Among those reporting were Luther H. Redway, Selinsgrove, president of the board of synodical social missions; Rev. Cleon Prowell, West Fairview, chairman of the board of the department of social action; Rev. George Whetstone, Harrisburg, synodical secretary of innermissions and staff executive for the board of social missions.

Rev. Cedric W. Tilberg, Altoona, chairman of the department of inner missions, reported that 12 new congregations are now under guidance of the board in suburban developments. In addition it was noted that several older congregations in downtown city areas are returning to mission status because of the movement of the congregation away from the churches.

The 317,287 members of the synod contributed $11,225,964 at all causes during 1956, an increase of 228 per cent over the prior year, according to the report of the synod stewardship secretary, Dr. Ralph C. Robinson. Property values of the churches increased by $5,455,210 during the year, but total indebtedness increased only $675,254.

Some Comparative Figures
Secretary Robinson noted that while the U. S. population increased by two per cent in 1956 the communing memberships of the synod increased 1.8 per cent.

That the Central Pennsylvania synod is a predominantly rural unit was noted by Dr. Martin Le Tozer, superintendent of Synodical Home Missions and Rural Church World. Of the ten largest synods in the United Lutheran Church in America, the Central Pennsylvania Synod has the largest number of multiple church charges. Of the 625 churches only 200 are single church charges. (Continued On Page 2)

JIMMY DORSEY DIES OF CANCER TODAY AT 53

NEW YORK (AP) — Bandleader Jimmy Dorsey, 53, died today of cancer.

He was the brother of Tommy Dorsey, also a bandleader, who died last November.

They formed one of the best-known brother combinations in the popular music world. A Jimmy Dorsey recording, "So Rare," is listed second in a rating of current hits.

Jimmy Dorsey died in Doctors Hospital. He had been operated on in January for a lung growth. Two months later he left his band on the road to enter the hospital. Funeral arrangements were in complete.

Dorsey was divorced. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Teresa Dorsey, and a daughter, Mrs. Julie Hilton, and a sister, Mrs. Anthony Visella.

Jimmy Dorsey, like his more-famous brother Tommy, came out of the poverty-stricken hard-core regions of Pennsylvania to head one of the most famous bands in America. The two brothers were noted for the music they made separately and together—and won almost as much prominence for the celebrated friends that kept them apart.

Musician At 16
They buried the hatchet in 1943, and in 1953 formed a band together after nearly 20 years on separate bands. Jimmy Dorsey choked to death accidentally in his sleep Nov. 26, 1956, and Jimmy carried on their band.

Born Leap Year Day, 1904, in Shenandoah, Pa., Jimmy was an accomplished musician, and a coal mine worker before he was 16.

His father, a miner and self-taught musician, forced brass band instruments into the reluctant hands of Jimmy and his younger brother Tommy before they were old enough for the three R's.

Used "Licorice Stick"
Jimmy was the quiet, cautious one; Tommy, the hot-tempered extrovert. Typically, Jimmy mastered the woodwinds and chose the clarinet—the jazzman's "licorice stick"—for his favorite instrument. Tommy went for brass, and the hardest brass there is, the trombone.

They started playing together in 1922 in small bands and gradually worked their way up the ladder to jobs with the Paul Whiteman and Vincent Lopez bands.

Tommy kept insisting they form their own band, and Jimmy finally gave in. The Dorsey brothers orchestra was a smashing success, employing such stars as Glenn Miller, Charlie Spivak, Ray McKinley and Bob Crosby. It broke apart in 1935 in a fare-up over tempo. Tommy walked out and started his own struggling band. Jimmy went to Hollywood to conduct for Bing Crosby.

Leave Assortment Of Articles At Camp

The Adams County Girl Scout office today reported "the girls left enough items behind to run a rummage sale" in noting that great quantities of articles found at Camp Happy Valley after the Gettysburg-Fairfield Girl Scout Day Camp there last week are now at the Girl Scout office in the First National Bank building.

The "lost" articles, forgotten by the scouts, include blankets, boots, jackets and a large assortment of smaller articles which can be reclaimed by calling at the office.

Tentative Okay On Damage Awards

The Adams County court has handed down papers approving tentatively the proposed settlement of the action in trespass brought by C. M. Powell Quicksall, Camden, N. J., administrator of the estate of Albert S. Engle, late of Collingswood, N. J., against Joseph M. Condon, Emmitsburg R. D. The settlement for $17,500 would pay $2,069.98 to Quicksall as administrator to take care of hospital, physician and funeral expenses, etc., involved in the fatal injury of Mr. Engle in an accident near here. $5,143.34 goes to the widow, Janet N. Engle, and $10,286.68 to the widow as guardian of three children, Albert Jr., Elizabeth J. and Thomas Engle. Final approval of the settlement will be given when Mrs. Engle is formally named as guardian by a New Jersey court.

LUTHERANS GIVE

Fifty per cent of the churches are located in centers of less than 500 population.

The convention reaffirmed its present method of unlimited tenure for officers of the synod. That action paved the way, if it is so desired, for Dr. Dwight F. Putman to be re-elected as synod president again next year.

A resolution presented to limit synod officers to two five-year terms was voted down. Rev. Putman will end his second five-year term as president next year.

At the opening of the synod Tuesday Burgess William G. Weaver extended greetings to the delegates. He said: "We, here at Gettysburg, are proud of our connections with the Lutheran Church. Having here two of your institutions and having known the men and women who have passed through their halls we feel as though we have had a great deal to do with the Lutherans. With all of this in mind I am qualified to say, 'Welcome'."

Greetings and words of welcome were brought to the convention by President Willard S. Paul of Gettysburg College. He urged the delegates to make the college a "home" away from home.

Directly following the presentation of Burgess Weaver and President Paul, the pastors who have recently been received into the synod were brought to the floor of the convention. Those received from other synods and called to parishes within this synod are:

The Rev. Claude R. Baublitz to York County institutional chaplain; the Rev. Russell J. Crouse to St. James Lutheran, Altoona; the Rev. Charles A. Davis to St. John Lutheran, Steelton; the Rev. Ralph R. Hartzell to Messiah Lutheran, South Williamsport; the Rev. Ambrose Hering to Ex. Sec. of Lancaster Inner Mission; the Rev. Paul E. Jensen to Upper Frankford parish; the Rev. Robert M. Milley to be chaplain at Veterans Hospital, Coatesville; the Rev. C. Wayne Peterman to St. Matthew Lutheran, Williamsport; and the Rev. Earl E. Preliminary plans were discussed for possible formation of another baseball league to fit into the older boys classification. The board observed: "These programs will bring baseball back to Gettysburg." The town at present does not have a baseball team in any league. "Graduates" of the various leagues for boys at the Recreation Field will in time, according to the discussion, "most likely form an adult team."

The possibility of adding music instruction to the summer program was discussed with no final decisions reached.

Lawyer and James E. Shilling, Westminster; Earl Bowen, Gettysburg, and the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith, Hanover.

Plans were completed for the annual family picnic and fishing contest of Littlestown Cub Pack No. 84, at a meeting of the den mothers and pack officials on Monday evening at the American Legion Home. The picnic will be held at the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, near town, next Wednesday, June 19. Each family will take its own picnic lunch, and the group will eat at 6 p.m. Ice cream and orange drink will be furnished by the pack. The fishing contest will follow the lunch, and members of the Pack will participate. Three prizes will be awarded, to the Cub catching the first fish, largest fish, and the most fish.

Cubmaster Stewart N. Long, who presided at the meeting, announced that the Red Cross swimming course will be offered to the pack again this year. The course will begin on July 15 and will continue for two weeks, at Crouse's Pool, near town. On the first day, July 15, the boys will meet at 10 a.m. at the E. King St. school; after that time they will be divided into classes and a schedule arranged. Parents of the Cubs are asked to volunteer transportation for the Cubs, to the pool, by contacting the den mothers.

Today's Talk

THAT UNKNOWN SPARK
A kindly man came into my office one day, "Just to make a call," he said, and we had a good talk. When he was about to leave, he left a little book with me, that he had written, called "You Were Born to Victory," a line that he had taken from an essay by Emerson. I asked him to sign the book, but he just said that he would sign it later after I had read it.

"I read that book and it inspired me greatly. Here is one paragraph from it. He said: 'In every man there is some hidden spark, which, if ignited, can transform a failure into a success.' How true that statement can be! But who is to inspire that spark? It is within your own power! Emerson brought out this fact in his great and inspiring essay on 'Self Reliance.' Get it and read it. I have read it many times. The late William Allen White once said that it was one of the greatest essays ever written."

Emerson said: "A man is relieved and gay when he has put his heart into his work and done his best." Then it is that the unknown spark flares up and you begin to be a somebody! And when you have ignited this spark, it lights a multitude of hidden sparks in the lives of all with whom you come in contact!

But don't wait for someone else to light this hidden spark. Light it yourself! It's there if you feel it. Makes it a holy flame. Like Shakespeare's little candle, it will throw its shining beams afar. Like the lamp lighter of our youth, who went about with his torch lighting the lamps that brought the village out of darkness, you can make that hidden spark within you a blessing to yourself and endless others.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Faces."

I am indeed a foolish man,
Or so my doctor tells me.
Take his advice and save the price
Of stuff the druggist sells me.
With less of work and more of sleep
The health I have I'd surely keep.

"Stay home at night and go to bed.
Give up your ceaseless going.
That banquet stuff on you is rough;
It keeps your waistline growing.
Henceforth, when you are asked to go,
Remember now to answer, No.

"That's all," my doctor says, and then
In pleading tones much meeker:
"Oh, by the way, next Saturday
Our Men's Club needs a speaker.
And will you come and be my guest?"
"No doctor, That is when I'll rest."

National League Race Tightens As Pirates Whip Redlegs And Phillies And Dodgers Are Beaten

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Manager Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati's Redlegs has been saying of late:

"This is going to be some race. Any of maybe five teams could take it. And just about anybody can beat you."

And now the Pittsburgh Pirates, more of a "nobody" than most, have whipped the Redlegs two in a row—after losing 15 in a row to Cincinnati—and have trimmed Cincinnati's lead to a half game.

Paper-thin Lead
The five-hit pitching of Bob Purkey helped bring an 8-1 victory for the seventh place Pirates last night and left Cincinnati four percentage points ahead of Milwaukee. The Braves jumped into second place with a 7-2 job on the Brooklyn Dodgers, who slipped to fourth, 1½ games behind, with their fourth defeat in a row.

Fifth place St. Louis, only two games behind, won its seventh in a row with a 5-2 decision over the third place Philadelphia Phillies, who remained a game behind Cincinnati.

Yanks Narrow Gap
The American League race tightened a bit, with the second place New York Yankees closing within four games of Chicago by handing the White Sox their third consecutive defeat 3-2 in the opener of a three-game series. Cleveland regained third place, 6½ behind, with four home runs that beat Boston 7-6. Detroit slid to fourth place with a 4-1 defeat by Baltimore. Rain postponed Washington at Kansas City.

Left-hander Don Gross, who had built an 8-0 streak going back to 1955 with the Redlegs, dropped his third in a row as the Pirates took off on a 13-hit spree. The Redlegs pulled the NL's first triple play of the year, but did little

Favor Akins To Beat Walt Byars

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Both fighters are talking in terms of victory, but the oddsmakers have Virgil Akins an 8-5 favorite to turn back Walter Byars in a 10-round ABC televised battle of ranking welterweights at the Norfolk Arena tonight.

Akins, St. Louis battler ranked No. 5 by the National Boxing Assn., will be after his sixth straight triumph in the sports feature of the International Naval Review at 9 p.m., EST.

After a defeat in his last start against Tony DeMarco, No. 1 challenger for welterweight champion Carmen Basilio's title, Byars — No. 7 welterweight from Roxbury, Mass. — will be out to begin a new string.

Byars has won 15 of his 20 professional fights, including decisions over Kid Gavilan and Sugar Hart.

EXPECT LEADER TO SIGN FISH LICENSE BILL

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposed increase in the state's resident fishing license fee from $2.50 to $3.25 beginning next year went to Gov. Leader today. It was expected to be signed.

Unanimous Senate approval of the measure ended several months of maneuvering within the Legislature over an increase. The 75-cent increment would give the Fish Commission additional funds of $525,000 for acquisition and improvement of public fishing areas.

"We will start immediately to re-examine the whole fish management situation," said William Voigt Jr., executive director of the Fish Commission.

Wanted $5 Fee
"And I hope," he continued, "that by the next time the commission meets at Harrisburg July 8 we will be able to lay before the members a rounded program based on the anticipated revenue from the new bill."

Voigt, who had sought unsuccessfully for a $5 fee, added that fishermen "could expect only a $3.25 program on the basis of a $3.25 bill."

"The more ambitious program we had projected on the basis of additional revenue from a $5 license cannot be carried out under a $3.25 bill," he declared.

He added that "there is no question that the 75-cent increase, if approved by the governor, is going to help."

HERB SCORE TO BEGIN WORKING BY MID-JULY

CLEVELAND (AP) — Pitcher Herb Score "should be able to resume his baseball workouts July 15," according to the specialist who has been treating the star south-paw's injured right eye.

That means it probably will be August before he will be in condition to return to the baseball wars from which he was shelved May 7 by a line drive off the bat of New York Yankee Gil McDougald.

Dr. Charles I. Thomas examined Score's injured eye yesterday afternoon for the first time in two weeks. Score had been visiting at the home of his uncle in Hagers-town, Md., and returned Monday night.

Greatly Improved
The doctor found in his testing that "Herb's condition is greatly improved, and his eye has responded well to the medication prescribed for him."

The medication, a liquid applied to the eye with a dropper and some tablets taken internally, will continue in gradually reduced amounts for another four weeks, said Dr. Thomas, "during which period he should gradually regain his strength through limited activity."

Eager To Return
Score called the report "very encouraging." He is anxious to get back on the mound as soon as possible.

Score said he expected to leave tomorrow or Friday for his mother's home in Lake Worth, Fla. He plans to stay there until July when he rejoins the Indians.

The injury to the strikeout artist, who was 24 last Friday, was diagnosed as a swollen retina. It takes a long time to heal. Indications point toward full or near nearly full recovery.

STAN CALLS IT "LUCK" AS HE TIES A RECORD

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The ever modest Stan Musial called it "luck" last night when he tied the National League mark for consecutive games played, but a look at the record stamps him as second only to the late Lou Gehrig as the most durable player in the history of the game.

Gehrig played in 2,130 consecutive games for the New York Yankees. Musial has been in the lineup of the St. Louis Cardinals in 2,192 of the club's 2,229 games since he joined the team some 14 years ago.

"You have to be lucky to do something like this," said Musial last night after he played in his 822nd consecutive game to tie the record set by former Pittsburgh first baseman Gus Suhr from Sept. 11, 1931, to June 4, 1937.

Missed Game In '51
"I've been fortunate not to have any serious injuries that would sideline me. I go out there and play every game and the fact they have all come in succession as they have is secondary to me."

The last time Musial missed a game because he was unfit to play was in early May 1951, when the team was stricken with a flu epidemic. He was out for one game. Prior to that the only serious injury suffered by the great outfielder-first baseman came in 1944. He collided with Deb Garmis in the outfield and hurt his left knee. He reinjured the knee in 1950 diving for a ball and it has troubled him from time to time.

Statistically, Musial is now tied for fifth among the 13 players who participated in 500 or more consecutive games. Tonight he should break the deadlock with Suhr and move into fourth behind Washington's Eddie Yost, who played in 829 straight games. The top three are Gehrig, Everett Scott (1,307) and Joe Sewell (1,103).

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It just wasn't a night for pitchers, a dozen Eastern League hurlers conceded today.

One by one they took the mound last night—seven for Binghamton and five for Albany—and departed. Their erratic control, and booming bats proved too much.

What happened was this: Albany outlasted Binghamton 18-14 as the batters pounded out a total of 28 hits, including 10 doubles and a home run, while the pitchers gave up a total of 26 walks.

In Syracuse, meanwhile, a small turnout of 441 fans saw a pitching duel between Lev Spencer of Syracuse and George Lastres of Springfield broken up with a ninth-inning homer that gave the Chiefs a 3-1 victory.

Schenectady posted a double win over Reading, 2-1 and 6-6, or home runs in each game by John Pedretti.

USE CAUTION IN RUSSIAN TALKS, DULLES ORDERS

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles is reported to have Harold Stassen to adopt more cautious tactics in private negotiations with the Russians.

Dulles is understood to have impressed this on Stassen during a meeting yesterday which reviewed East-West disarmament prospects.

Dulles acted to meet vigorous backstage complaints by British, French and some other European governments against Stassen's private meetings with Valerian Zorin, Soviet representative in the London disarmament talks.

Few Going Too Far

The Europeans fear Stassen might be negotiating behind their backs on problems affecting Europe.

Informed officials said there was also some feeling within the State Department that the disarmament chief has "raced ahead of his instructions."

What annoyed the Europeans especially was Stassen's move in presenting to Zorin informally a 23-page summary of disarmament possibilities. This was not an official Western proposal but papers aimed at acquainting the Soviets with possible Western thinking on the problem.

The British and French opposed two-way American-Soviet contacts on the ground that the London disarmament talks also involve Britain, France and Canada.

Fear Red Trap

Some Europeans also expressed the view that Stassen might fall into a Soviet propaganda trap.

Responsible authorities said Dulles and Stassen now are in complete agreement on the need for being exceedingly careful in

Senate Approves Building Auction

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate State Government Committee on Monday approved for floor action a House approved bill that would authorize the sale of 45 acres of land and buildings now maintained by the Scotland School for Veterans Children in Franklin County.

Under the proposal, approved 1920 by the House May 23, the Property and Supplies Department would sell the tract at auction to the lowest bidder.

At the same time the committee approved another House-passed measure which would repeal a 1955 law authorizing the sale of one acre of land in the same area of Green Twp. This tract is located along the south side of route 35.

Both measures are in position for final action later this week.

U.S. CONSIDERS CUT IN STAFF

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department is reported mapping a cut of up to 50 per cent in the 34-member U. S. legation staff in Communist Hungary.

This planned slash is about what the Soviet satellite government of Premier Janos Kadar demanded May 25, but the State Department told Hungary in a note released yesterday that it is not responding to the Hungarian demand.

The official American position is that the Kadar regime is making it "increasingly difficult" for American diplomats in Budapest. Officials cited harassment of visitors to the legation and arrests of some Hungarian employees of the legation.

The United States note said this country alone "is in a position to determine the personnel which it needs in its mission abroad."

In its May 25 note the Kadar regime demanded that the Americans be reduced by more than a third and that the 61 Hungarian personnel working for the legation be cut correspondingly. In accordance with diplomatic custom, the Hungarian government could order out of the country any diplomat stationed there.

High Court Denies Bookies New Trial

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The State Superior Court has upheld the conviction of three Delaware County men on charges of pool-selling and bookmaking.

Judge Robert Woodside in a unanimous decision handed down yesterday, said the evidence was sufficient to sustain the conviction of Anthony Mappero, Frank Drill and Daniel Drill.

The three owned a building housing a pool room, an unrented store and apartments at 1427 Chester Pike, Ridley Twp. Judge Wood said the three men were properly denied a new trial.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A scar-faced man with a painted false mustache Tuesday held up the Intercountry Savings and Loan Assn. at Oreland in Springfield Twp., Montgomery County.

Driver Burns To Death In Crash

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—A truck driver was killed in a rear-end collision of two tractor-trailers on the Pennsylvania Turnpike about 15 miles west of Carlisle Monday night.

The victim's identity could not be established at once because he was trapped in the cab of his vehicle when it burst into flames. The body was burned severely.

The second driver, Joseph Visco, 51, Philadelphia, was taken to Carlisle Hospital with first, second and third degree burns of the arms, legs and face. His condition was reported as satisfactory.

The first truck was carrying sugar and the second iron ore.

Trooper Robert P. Morrison of the Turnpike Detail said both vehicles were going west when Visco's truck, slowing down to pull off the road, was hit from the rear by the other vehicle.

Water Well Bills Are Reconsidered

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two bills to require that all persons who drill water wells be licensed by the state were approved in the Senate Monday after reconsideration. They had been defeated a week before.

One measure calls for a State Board of Examiners for water well drilling contractors and the other for an $8 annual registration and licensee fee. Persons drilling on their own property would not have to obtain the license but would be required to file information about the wells with the state.

The licensing bill was sent to the House for agreement in amendments. The bill for the board went to Gov. Leader.

Allow third class cities to contribute more than 2 per cent of all city taxes as the city's share in police pension funds (49-0, to governor).

CITIZEN LOSES UTILITY FIGHT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A long legal battle by a Delaware County resident to prevent construction of a 220,000-volt power line across his property was lost yesterday in Pennsylvania Superior Court.

William W. Laird of Lower Chester Twp. sought to block the construction of a 1½ million dollar transmission line by the Philadelphia Electric Co. on steel towers between Lower Chester Twp. and East Bradford Twp., Chester County.

Judge J. Colvin Wright held that though the court is "not unsympathetic with Laird's situation, the necessity for the line already had been established."

He pointed out the 19½-mile power line will serve an area that includes oil refinery, steel production, shipbuilding and other industries vital to the nation's peace-time economy and national defense.

Laird had refused to sell part of his 233-acre farm to the electric utility and the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission then invoked the right of eminent domain.

HOPE FADES FOR TRAPPED MINER

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)—Workers dug through the night without reaching a 19-year-old miner trapped some 100 feet below the surface.

Hope grew dim that Frank Pufnock, buried in a fall of shale in this central Pennsylvania coal region yesterday morning, was still alive. Some 50 rescuers worked in one-hour shifts during the night. Only four to six men could dig in the narrow shaft.

The youth was loading a coal cart in the independent operation owned by his father George when the slide occurred. He was believed to have been buried beneath 30 to 50 tons of shale.

Hindered By Rain

A steady rain last night washed more shale and loose earth into the shaft. Workers reported that often as much washed in as they had taken out.

"They don't expect to bring him out alive," said Lt. George Fage of the Shamokin police.

Pufnock failed to respond to the cry of a fellow worker, Earl Geist, seconds after the shale let loose. Geist jumped clear, shouting a warning.

The rescue work was also slowed by the necessity of shoring the walls of the shaft with timbers as the debris was cleared. Workers at the top of the mine cut the timbers and passed them down.

Post Cards Are 84 Years Old; Yankee Product Very Popular

About 3 1/2 billion postal and post cards—all descended from the brainchild of an American in Philadelphia nearly a century ago—will be delivered this by the Post Office Department.

Noting the vacation season is close at hand for most Americans, the Post Office Department is girding for another record year in carrying the "having-a-good-time-wish-you-were-here" postal cards, and "picture" post cards. Postal cards are the plain kind sold at post offices. Post cards are those privately printed, usually with the picture or drawing on one side.

Noting that U.S. postal cards are 84 years old, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield observed today they have grown to be the most economical means of communication the world has ever known.

Yankee Origin

While the Post Office did not get out the first cards, and while it is not clear who first conceived the idea of the card, they appear to be an original product of the United States. The first practical application of this simple mailing device—requiring only the one piece of paper for its message—originated in Philadelphia in 1861.

The originator was John P. Charlton of that city. He was granted a copyright on the card idea and transferred the copyright to H. L.

Lipman, also of Philadelphia. Lipman printed what he called "Lipman's Postal Cards" until about the time the Post Office first put them out in May, 1873. Technically, since they were not the kind with the built-in stamp issued officially by the government, they were post cards and not postal cards. Austria got out the first real postal cards in 1869, followed in 1870 by the German Confederation, England and Switzerland, and, in 1871, by Belgium and the Netherlands.

Postmaster General John A. Creswell in 1870 called Congress' attention to the fact other nations were already using postal cards and recommended the United States do so. But the bill to authorize them didn't become law until 1872, and they didn't come out until the following year.

Famous "Garbage" Postals
Domestic single postal cards in this country were always a penny until Jan. 1, 1952, when the present 2c rate was provided, except for a period about World War I.

A 1c tax on cards was added to the 1c base rate, and hundreds of millions of cards were printed at 2c. When the tax was abolished July 1, 1919, Uncle Sam had 200 million 2-penny cards on his hands worth a penny each. They were overprinted with a "1-cent" imprint and sold to avoid waste.

An interesting fable has been circulated for many years about the so-called "garbage" postal card.

The story has it that Mrs. William McKinley didn't like the picture of her President husband on 1,625,000 1902 postal cards and the Postmaster General then accordingly ordered every one of them destroyed.

Somehow, a box of 500 of the rejected cards, though, was delivered to New York City and sold by the Postmaster there to a New York garbage disposal firm, which had its own name and address printed on the address side of the cards.

Most of these 500 were retrieved by a postal official who had been dispatched from Washington to get them back, but a few of them ultimately reached the hands of collectors, and they are referred to as the "garbage cards."

Worth $300 Now

There is no official substantiation of the story about Mrs. McKinley. Actually, the official records show they were destroyed because they had not been well printed on the high speed presses which were just then coming into use.

Philatelically, the "garbage" cards list up to $300 catalogue value, and a number of other issues of relatively rare postal cards list for prices like $30, $40 and $50 each.

Collecting of cards appears to have increased greatly in recent years, along with increases in stamp collecting generally.

U.S. postal cards have been printed by the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C., since 1910. And except for a few cards, particularly the earliest cards, plates

Twins Since 1892

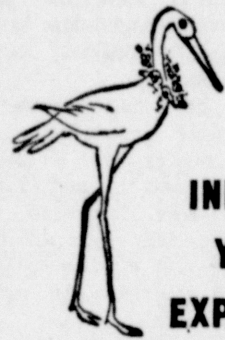

The domestic postal card became a twin for the first time on October 25, 1892, when the "double" reply cards were issued at 2 cents for each double card.

These cards — the kind which contains the attached duplicate postal card that the addressee tears off and uses for his reply — sells for 4 cents today, and are still highly popular.

The first international postal card issued by the United States made its debut on December 1, 1897, and made it possible to communicate with almost anybody in the world for only 2c.

The double international reply card was first sold in 1893 at 4c and this device made it possible for people in this country to assure themselves of a reply from folks back in the "old country" who might not otherwise have postage to spare for a reply. The card was particularly useful for newly-arrived immigrants. However it is still mailed by millions of Americans each year, and still costs a small amount — 8c.

Although regular U.S. airmail service dates back to 1918, there was not an airmail card until January 10, 1949, although previously regular cards could be sent by air simply by the addition of an appropriate stamp to take care of the extra postage. The airmail cards sell today for 4c, same as in 1949.

Young Driver Killed In Truck Accident

TAMAQUA, Pa. (AP)—A 21-year-old Lehigh County tractor-trailer driver was killed yesterday when his empty vehicle collided with a truck near the intersections of Routes 443 and 309 south of here.

Harold Schmick of Orefield, died in Coaldale State Hospital three hours after the accident. He suffered multiple injuries including a punctured lung and a fractured jaw.

State police said the truck, driven by Francis Hauck, 22, of Mahanoy City, was making a left turn into a side road when the tractor-trailer hit the smaller vehicle. Hauck was listed in serious condition in the same hospital.

ported only $88 was spent for fire equipment and repairs during the last year. The auditor's report showed receipts for the year as being $6,111.69 and disbursements of $6,002.36.

Receipt of $758.27 from the Foreign Fire Insurance tax refund from Abbottstown, Berwick, Hamilton and Paradise Twp. was acknowledged.

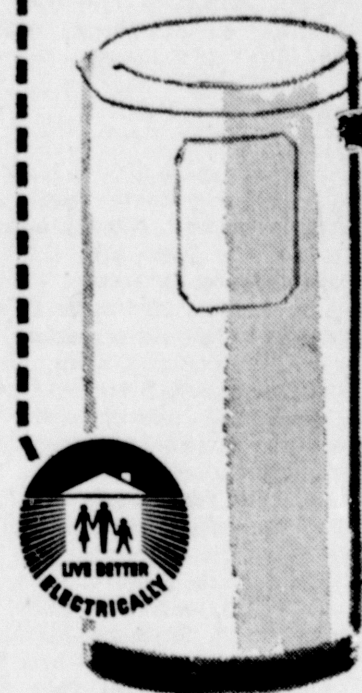

George Rutters was admitted as a new company member.

Clarence Gochenour, rural mail carrier, has been admitted to the York Hospital. Artie Gulden is serving as his substitute.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ensminger and family visited relatives in Newark, N. J., over the weekend.

LIVE BETTER...Electrically

Compare a modern, completely automatic ELECTRIC water heater with any other water heating method for years of care-free service.

They outlast old-fashioned flame type water heaters because they are so much simpler in design and because they don't use the excessive high heats that lead to burn-outs, liming and rusting.

Electric water heaters last for years and years, because of scientifically controlled heating and perfected methods of rust prevention. There are many electric water heaters in service for more than twenty years.

HALF MILLION HEAR GRAHAM

NEW YORK (AP)—The gate count at Billy Graham's New York crusade today totaled more than half a million in four weeks, and the big-city folk still are flocking to hear him nightly by the thousands. "During this first month," Graham said last night, "we have seen God do great and marvelous things in this city." The crusade, which the evangelist says has stirred the greatest response he has ever seen in his preaching around the world, still has more than another month to go. It's near the halfway mark.

Assumpsit Actions Are Filed In Court

Two actions in assumpsit were filed in Adams County court today against John R. and Deborah A. Sauter, Philadelphia, both alleging nonpayment of promissory notes made on loans to them of $6,500. The one suit, for recovery of $3,000, is brought by H. B. Brown, Baltimore. The other for recovery of $3,500 is brought by Michael J. and Cecelia C. Bollinger, Baltimore. Attorney H. Thomas Pyle of the law firm of Brown, Swope and MacPhail said the loans were made in Adams County and the actions are brought here for that reason. Pyle filed both of the complaints for the plaintiffs.

WILL ADDRESS FARMERS

Joseph Taylor, head of dairy extension for the Pennsylvania State University, will address a meeting of the Adams County dairy farmers Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Adams Electric Cooperative building. Assistant County Agent John D. Naugle said today. He will discuss breeding, feeding and weeding, using dairy records and efficient milk production. Dairy Herd Improvement Association awards for 1956-57 will be presented.

To Hold Antique Show June 20, 21, 22

The eleventh annual Westminster antiques show and sale will be held June 20, 21 and 22 at the elementary school. The show is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Westminster. Mrs. Pearl Jones, Chester, Md., manager is a veteran coordinator of antiques shows. Among her annual shows are those held at Carvel Hall, Annapolis; Easton, La Plata, Baltimore, Dover, Del., and Rockville, Md. Lunch and dinner will be served each day by the wives of the Kiwanians.

GIVE TRAVEL FIGURES

Tourist visitation to the Battleground over the weekend totaled 6,231, the National Park reported today. Of the number 1,848 arrived by car and 44 in one bus Saturday, 4,144 visited by cars Sunday and 195 in six buses.

ALGIERS (AP)—Gangs of French students rioted through Algiers Tuesday, smashing shop windows and attacking Moslems in retaliation for the dance hall bombing Sunday in which 8 French were killed and 83 wounded. A general strike called by student and veterans' organizations closed all shops and banks by noon and only a few trolley cars were still operating.
